

Design Your Next Career

Do you absolutely love anything related to interior decorating? Do you mentally re-arrange the furnishings of everyone's home you enter? Do you go to open houses just to see how others decorate or to figure out what you would do to make the house sell faster? Have you often wondered if it would be possible to make money doing something you love?

You are invited to attend a FREE teleseminar hosted by the Association of Design Education, as my guest! During this teleseminar, your questions about having a career in the fast-growing fields of real estate staging, interior redesign, or interior decorating will be answered. You will learn just what it takes to begin a career you've longed to have, what type of education you need, the necessary skills it takes, how to make money and so much more!

This free teleseminar is scheduled for Tuesday, March 25th. There are two different time slots – 7:00 p.m. & 10:00 p.m. EST – so sign up for the one that is most convenient for you. When your registration has been received, you will be sent a brief questionnaire to submit and the call in number. (Long distance charges may apply, depending on your long distance service.)

Don't miss this opportunity! Your exciting, new career is waiting!
